

EXTRA-ORDINARY PEOPLE

I am an ordinary human being
Trying to achieve extra-ordinary things

I mistook the Greatness of my Spirit Being
As the greatness of my human being
I accepted the extra-ordinary potential of my Spirit
Without heeding it's wish to express itself in the real world

My human being-ness became the focus.
It took credit for the Greatness of my Spirit Being-ness
Without uniting both in the real world...
I could never achieve Greatness.

And so I never did...Until Now!

To create the Extra-ordinary from the Ordinary
Is to accept Spirit and surrender to it in this reality.
I now face myself with honesty and intimacy for the first time. I see love! I feel love! I am love!
I accept love into my life with humility,
I cry the tears of understanding, surrender and joy!
Not as the Spirit outside of myself
But as Myself As Spirit!

The joy is the coming home!
The tears are for the past as it surrenders to the Love
For the Birth of Myself!
The understanding is the Knowing &
The Knowing is the Spirit...
...and the journey we made to find each other!
The battle is over...

The Ordinary has united to become The Extraordinary
